AT A GLANCE

A plain-language summary. The numbered clauses below are what legally applies.

- Student-written revision material. Not an official source, and not checked by anyone.
- Syllabuses change. A note that was right last year may be wrong for your paper.
- No guarantee of any result. Nothing here promises you a mark.
- Nothing here is legal, medical, financial or professional advice.
- Our liability is limited, but never for death, personal injury or fraud.

1. The nature of the material

1.1 Every note, answer, summary and comment on the Service was written and uploaded by a student.

1.2 Material is not written, commissioned, reviewed, verified, corrected or approved by us.

1.3 Material is not endorsed by any examination board, university, school, government body or professional institute.

1.4 A contributor's name on a note identifies who uploaded it. It is not a qualification, a credential or a warranty of accuracy.

1.5 A high download count, a high vote count or a leaderboard position indicates popularity, not correctness.

> Popularity and accuracy diverge most sharply exactly where it matters -- a clear, confident, wrong explanation spreads faster than a careful right one.

1.6 We do not fact-check material before or after publication.

1.7 We remove material we become aware is wrong, but we do not undertake to find it.

2. Not an official source

2.1 Material on the Service is not an official syllabus.

2.2 Material described as a past paper is a student's recollection or compilation, not an official reproduction.

2.3 Material described as a marking scheme is a student's reconstruction, not an official one.

2.4 Syllabuses, question patterns and mark allocations change between years and between boards.

2.5 You must check anything you rely on against your own current official syllabus and your institution's guidance.

2.6 Where material conflicts with an official source, the official source is correct and the material is wrong.

2.7 We do not undertake to keep material current with any syllabus.

3. No guarantee of outcome

3.1 We make no representation that using the Service will improve any result.

3.2 We make no representation that any material covers a syllabus in whole or in part.

3.3 We make no representation that a subject area contains material at all. Many are empty.

3.4 We do not guarantee that a particular topic, question or answer will appear on the Service.

3.5 No statement anywhere on the Service should be read as a promise of an academic outcome.

3.6 Your result depends on your work, your teaching and the paper you sit, none of which we control.

4. Not professional advice

4.1 Nothing on the Service is legal advice.

4.2 Nothing on the Service is medical or clinical advice, including material in medical and nursing subjects.

> Stated expressly because this library carries MBBS and nursing material. A student note on dosage is a revision aid and must never be used to treat a person.

4.3 Nothing on the Service is financial, investment, accounting or tax advice.

4.4 Nothing on the Service is engineering, structural or safety certification.

4.5 Do not act on material from the Service in a professional or clinical context.

4.6 The documents in the Legal Centre describe our policies and are not legal advice to you.

5. Availability and technical matters

5.1 The Service is provided "as is" and "as available".

5.2 We do not warrant that it will be uninterrupted, timely, secure or error-free.

5.3 We do not warrant that defects will be corrected, or corrected within any time.

5.4 We do not warrant that files are free from viruses or other harmful components, although we take reasonable steps.

5.5 We do not warrant that the Service is compatible with any particular device, browser or assistive technology.

5.6 We may change, suspend or withdraw any part of the Service at any time.

5.7 Downloaded material is your responsibility to store. We are not a backup service.

6. Third parties

6.1 Links to third-party sites are provided for convenience only.

6.2 We do not control, endorse or accept responsibility for third-party content, products or policies.

6.3 A link is not a recommendation.

6.4 Your dealings with a third party are between you and them.

6.5 We are not responsible for the acts or omissions of other users of the Service.

6.6 We are not responsible for material a user copies from the Service and publishes elsewhere.

7. Limitation of liability

7.1 To the fullest extent permitted by law, we exclude all warranties, conditions and terms implied by statute or common law.

7.2 To the fullest extent permitted by law, we are not liable for indirect, incidental, special, consequential, exemplary or punitive loss.

7.3 To the fullest extent permitted by law, we are not liable for loss of profit, revenue, data, goodwill, opportunity, reputation or academic result.

7.4 To the fullest extent permitted by law, our total aggregate liability is limited to the greater of the amount you have paid us -- ordinarily nil -- or NPR 5,000.

7.5 The limits in this section apply however liability arises, whether in contract, tort, negligence, statute or otherwise.

7.6 The limits reflect that the Service is provided free of charge and without payment from users.

7.7 Where a court holds any limit in this section unenforceable, the remaining limits continue to apply.

8. What we never exclude

8.1 Nothing in this document or anywhere on the Service excludes or limits our liability for death or personal injury caused by our negligence.

8.2 Nothing excludes or limits our liability for fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation.

8.3 Nothing excludes or limits our liability for any matter which cannot lawfully be excluded or limited.

8.4 Nothing affects your statutory rights as a consumer under the laws of Nepal.

> A liability cap in a standard-form contract with a consumer is not automatically enforceable in Nepal. This clause exists so that the rest of the section cannot be read as an attempt to displace those rights.

8.5 Nothing prevents you from complaining to a regulator or from bringing a claim you are entitled to bring.

9. General

9.1 This document forms part of the Terms of Use.

9.2 It is governed by the laws of Nepal.
